The LPPA Training Programme

What does it offer?

A series of one-day and half-day training courses, providing expert input and practical workshop activity. All courses are designed to address key issues in developing effective parent partnership, and each one draws on good practice developed nationally through the LPPA programme.

Who is it for?

For the full range of staff in schools and early years settings, plus educational professionals who support schools in developing parent partnership.

Who provides the training?

All courses are delivered by experienced LPPA Advisers, who have a wide range of professional expertise in working with schools and early years settings.

Where does it happen?

All courses are held at a suitable venue provided by the school or organisation.
